

Juliet Altham
Kennebunkport

The creation of an Education Ombudsman is a common sense, fair and cost-sharing solution to a problem that is increasingly showing up. It offers calm process and expertise to deal with issues that can often be complex, sensitive and potentially destructive if not dealt with well.

I support this Bill.