

Jennifer Landry
Glenburn

I support LD 1186

This is a vital part of being a U.S. citizen and Maine citizen. Learning about both constitutions during the senior year of high school is a positive addition to the public education curriculum. Young adults will graduate with actual knowledge of these important documents. I believe it will give a better perspective on their nation and state.

Please vote to PASS