

Mikaela Nadeau
New Gloucester

To the Committee,

I strongly support any endeavour in which the future generation can further understand and learn about the United States Constitution as well as the Maine Constitution. Especially as these young adults will be the next voting generation, it is important they understand the values they will be voting to protect and uphold.