

Adair Emmons
Portland

Ought to pass, this would be a great step forward in making our history/sociology curriculum more accurately reflect history/reality, which should always be the goal of education.