

Jess Martz
Rockland

This is a scary attempt to usher in communism and this needs to stop.
Until we stop doing business with China who actually commits these terrible acts every single day we have no business calling our country genocidal. If this is the education my kids can look forward to receiving I guess I will be homeschooling them through graduation.