

Emily Waltz
Waldoboro

As the history of the human race continues it is moving to a more peaceful culture. How can it continue to do so if the atrocities of the past are allowed to be swept under the rug? And the insults allowed to manifest by ignoring atrocities of the past. Allow our children of today to learn and become better people. Allow our children to fundamentally understand how to treat people of all cultures.