

Crystal Robinson
Hope

I believe in free speech and open debate without censorship. Students should be encouraged to think critically. Students should be given ample opportunity to practice debating intelligently and respectfully.