

Paul Johnson
USM
LD 512

The University of Maine system has seen significant enrollment declines in recent years, due at least to the Free Community College program. We can't complete with free, but would ask the committee to support Senator Tipping's bill that would provide 50% tuition for 4 years and a provision for degree completion.