

Kristie Miner
Roswell, GA
LD 51

I am writing in support of LD51. Our family was forced out of Maine, our home for 20 years, because of the removal of religious and philosophical exemptions. We left in December of 2020 and our children are completing their high school education in Georgia. The government should never coerce a medical procedure.