

Amanda Smith
Beals
LD 51

I am in support of LD 51. Medical decisions, especially those within the free country that is the United States of America, are best left to the individual making them for themselves or their minor children. No one should be forced to have a substance placed within their body to be able to utilize the services their taxes pay for.