

Lisa Littlejohn
Yarmouth
LD 394

I do not approve of giving school counselors the power to treat students without the knowledge and consent of the parents. Parental involvement is a Constitutional Right and this law would restrict our parental rights.