

Anthony Dater
Kennebunk

Do not repeal the single-use plastic bag ban. Paper bags are just as safe and we need to get back to them exclusively. Collecting plastic bags on premises still encourages their use and there is no certainty of their safe recycling thereafter. It is much better to reduce plastic bags in the first place by banning them. Our oceans and waterways depend on this, and our health.