

Rebekah Quere
Waterville

As should be obvious, but not put into practice with the seriousness it requires, preventing environmental harm, and harm from a polluted environment, should be paramount in state policies. Maine has many excellent protections, yet still I know my child's future, his children's future, is at risk. We the citizens should be the deciders regarding Maine's environmental health. Please pass this resolution. Thank you.