

Derik Smith
Presque Isle

It is a great idea to limit the release of balloons into the environment. However I would ask that there be a carve out for the release of helium balloons for aviation purposes. Hot air balloonists use toy balloons to ascertain wind directions, and speed, in order to have a safe flight.