

Sophie Ferrick
Kennebunk

I think that this bill is incredibly important concerning the rising sea levels in our coastal state of Maine. I have seen first hand the horrible flooding of our roads and marshes. We have had roads as well as sea walls heightened to adapt to the rising sea level. This is not going to be enough. We need to have action plans to save our coastal towns. This bill will greatly benefit our state by hopefully preparing to combat sea level rise before it is too late.