

Dorothy Anderson
West Buxton

This would be a great and ground breaking law for Maine and I wish other states would follow Maine's example. Plastic and trash are a big problem and need to be addressed. This bill would benefit towns and small businesses. Residents would have a cleaner environment as those that produce trash are forced to think of the cost of their use of materials that cause our huge trash problem.