

Mark Chasse
Auburn
LD 928

LD 928 ought-NOT-to pass. While it is a noble goal to protect the natural resources of Maine, changing the constitution could and would likely result in citizens having to give up other rights under the constitution including ownership of property use of natural resources.

It is best to discuss these issues on a case by case bases in order to determine what is acceptable to the people of this state.

Thank you.