

Greg Soutiea
Spruce Head
LD 1909

As a business owner that relies on local breweries for both local and tourists guests adding cost to the brewers crafting these great products would increase our costs as well and could be detrimental to the operations of many small Maine breweries that attract a lot of people to the state. We ask that the legislature oppose this proposed act to modernize Maine's beverage container redemption law.