

Eleanor Weisman
Knox
LD 2261

As a senior citizen in Maine, it is obvious to me that we are witnessing the impacts of climate change. Mainers must set and maintain high standards for the emissions from our automobiles. Please remember that 49% of Maine's greenhouse gas emissions come from automobiles.

We have had and need to keep our nonpartisan decision making process as we transition to cleaner, electric cars. Thank you.