

Steven Weems
Solar Energy Association of Maine

In the interest of progress, it is time to remove the very low limits on the number of possible participants in a net energy billing project in the Versant service territory.