

Nancy Babcock
Newry

Universal Healthcare is something we should have. Something is wrong with a system that has different prices for in-network and out-of-network providers and charges even more if you don't have insurance at all!