

Mark Grant
Hermon
LD 227

I am vehemently opposed to LD227. This is yet further erosion of parental rights. Maine should not be an active partner in soliciting citizens from our state or any other state to harm the parent child relationship. When our culture should be fostering closer relationships within families, this bill erodes this trust and openness in favor of state sponsored control of our lives.
Please reject this harmful legislation at the core.