

Terence McNamara
South Portland
LD 227

I am a practicing Catholic and am adamantly opposed to this legislation. It harms the most innocent of peoples, in truth. I only hope that legislators will see the error within this legislation that disregards the humanity of all human beings, from conception to natural death. Also, rash action fueled only by sentiments and not deliberate reasoning will eventually lead to destruction of society.