

Sarah Windsor
Hermon
LD 227

I absolutely DO NOT support this bill. This is government overreach at its highest level and extremely dangerous. Parents know what is best for their children and should be the people making decisions for their child's healthcare. There are so many things wrong with this legislation I can't even believe this is happening. I don't want my tax dollars funding this insanity!