

Joan Brown
First Congregational Church Waterville
LD 2124

I believe that it is crucial for Maine homeless shelters to receive ongoing predictable support. This enables shelter staff to plan for future needs, gives staff and shelter residents a greater sense of security, and it addresses this critical need our communities face to house the homeless.

Here in Maine we are facing one of the coldest winters on record. Coupled with severe lack of affordable housing this makes the fate of the poor even more tragic.