

Karen Young
Northport

I am writing in support of LD 512, a Bill to provide Intensive Case Managers to Counties. Currently at the Maine Midcoast Reentry Center in Belfast there is a part-time person, supported by private grants, who is shared with other counties. LD 512 would provide funding so that every county has an Intensive Case Manager dedicated to connecting incarcerated men with local support services as they transition into their home communities, and would substantially help to reduce recidivism.