

Janet Drew
York

I won't be reading all these bills...
But I want the committee to know that bills supporting families individuals and communities like these today seem to will be a positive step for Maine, as we hopefully move from prison trauma to healthcare. TY