

Janet Drew
York

I'm not familiar with this bill, but I do believe that we, as a state and Nation, abandon people. This has resulted in the criminalization of at risk groups experiencing mental illness, trauma and addiction, & poverty. People of color and aging out youth are at risk for arrest too. So I will just say I support bills that support people and communities through support services and ask you to work so that all Mainers can succeed