

Joe Grady
Harpswell

This is a totally unnecessary addition to the powers in the state gov that are already too broad. We need bills that ensure more discussion and debate and accountability so that we do not continue to sacrifice our constitutional rights in the name of "safety" without proper due process, even in the face of an emerging "emergency".