

Donna Kassa
Auburn

Why should DHHS have the power to set policy for businesses, and individuals?
Such restrictions, limitations, and/or abilities should be passed by the Maine legislative body and enforced by DHHS. The governor currently has this authority as enabled under the current and ongoing "civil emergency". This is supposedly a temporary situation, and therefore the temporary need for such powers need not be allocated to a permanent department of the state. This bill ought NOT to be passed.