

Jessica Martz
Rockland

The havoc that has already been created and the abuse of power during the past year of unchecked power does not lend itself to needing more unchecked power by non elected beings to have a say over the people of this great state. I hope you vote no! Please remember the people you represent and who pay for the people meant to represent us.