

Janet Drew
York

I support this and all efforts to assist embattled families and communities throughout Maine. We need to prioritize stable living and opportunities for education support and training. Transitional housing is much needed in every County in Maine with Federal money coming related to covid, it's important that we prioritize shelter for all our residents. I hope budgets will direct money for support services like this one
We need to invest in human infrastructure and families