

Donna Hodges
Newport

I oppose this bill because testing for any inspectable items as part on every sale of real estate should not be mandatory. Building inspections should be optional and part of the private negotiation process.