

Deborah Murray
Portland

If ever there was a time for transparency in gun accidents and deaths it is now. Please support this bill to allow the people of Maine to see that we in fact DO have a gun safety problem.

The media deserves this information in order to communicate the facts to the people of Maine. A centralized data bank could inform gun statistics to inform the public health of our state.

Please support this bill!