

Linda Reardon
Orrington

This bill is pure common sense. As someone who has had to lock the door to people showing up to apply for a job to care for my son while we worked and not able to find people at minimum wage. This bill should pass a hundred per cent.