

jennifer clanton
biddeford

This bill is so important. We as direct support professionals face many issues everyday. Its even more of a struggle not make a livable wage on top of that. Many dsps work 60 hours or more to be able to pay the bills, Which leads to less time with our families. We are responsible for the well being of others and our pay should reflect that. We should not make the same amount or less than the people we support