

Patrick Elliott
Old orchard beach

I Patrick Elliott am a cancer survivor and current vaper. I have would highly recommend just taxing vape products at a reasonable rate and let it be. If you ban it people will make their own product and kids will die. Prohibition never works, just look at our current opioid situation. Current smokers that could have switched to vaping will die as well. I know big tobacco bonds are lucrative but, we need to move on. Thank you