

Pauline Carr
North Yarmouth

I am in favor of this bill. I am in healthcare and have seen too many side effects to call this vaccine "safe". It requires years of testing for long term safety results and it certainly has not proven to be effective. I see daily breakthrough cases so it doesn't make sense to "mandate" it's use.

At this phase, it should still be a choice to vaccinate.