

Robert Corthell
Gray

Please put party aside and do what common sense dictates. There's factual data that is available and say no, not now. This request before you is to provide safety to your Maine citizens and get this right. Vaccines are helpful and sometimes critical, this is critical and needs time for additional testing and development. Please for the love of God. Amen