

Pamela Cowles
Bridgton

As someone who already deals with autoimmune disorders with unknown causes, I vehemently stress the importance of this bill. We DO NOT know the long-term ramifications of these vaccines. No medical procedures should ever be mandated, every individuals circumstance is different and no one solution is right for all. I ask that you vote Aught to Pass.