

James Godley
Bangor

Given that scientific research shows children are not at risk from this virus, we owe our children the due diligence to take reasonable time to ensure we aren't mandating COVID 19 vaccinations on children at this time. I am in support of LD 867.