

Kathy Hunter
Dover Foxcroft

I support this bill.

The animal trials were skipped for these drugs, and it is still in an experimental phase.

Covid-19 has a high survival rate, and since the animal trials for earlier mRNA vaccines went poorly, it behooves us to exercise caution.

Both of my kids attend college out-of-state because of Maine's approach to vaccinations and personal autonomy.