

Jeremy Polk
Bangor

I noticed that there is no representation on the Advisory Board from the Accessibility Industry. There are over 600 registered wheelchair lifts in Maine and a dozen active mechanics licensed for only wheelchair lifts. A representative from the accessibility field will ensure the interests of wheelchair lift owners are not overlooked. The old Safety Board had a seat for an owner of an accessibility company, and having a new board without one does not seem right. Thank you.