

Wendy Andresen
CAMDEN

I strongly support LD 1551 to end the sale of cosmetics tested on animals in Maine. Testing cosmetics on animals is cruel, as rabbits, guinea pigs, mice, and rats have substances forced down their throats, dripped into their eyes, or smeared onto their skin before they are killed. It is also unnecessary because cosmetic companies can already create innovative products using thousands of ingredients that have a history of safe use and do not require any new animal testing.