

Michelle Davis
Rockport, ME

I fully support LD 1551. Cosmetic testing on animals is an antiquated practice that is simply unnecessary. Animals should not have to suffer because of these unnecessary tests. I purposely buy products that are not tested on animals and would welcome not having products that don't follow these simple guidelines in our stores. I hope Maine will join the growing list of states and countries that have passed laws to address cosmetic animal testing. Thank you.