

Lynne Fracassi
Casco

Dear Committee Members,

Testing cosmetic products on animals is not only inhumane, it is torturous and completely unnecessary it is a death sentence for them. These animals are euthanized after the brutal tests.

Please consider that there are thousands of ingredients already tested, tried and safe for humans already. Why would we subject animals to this?
Please support this bill for the sake of the public and the true victims of the cosmetics industry.