

Nick Turner
Ellsworth

The financial status of live venues is well known by now. It is an industry that thrives by supporting great performers and filling seats. When live entertainment thrives, so do all the surrounding businesses. When businesses thrive so do communities.

Please pass this bill with confidence knowing that you are supporting investment in Maine and its residents and we will all thrive because of it.

Thank you!