

Joyce Schelling
Orland

Please support this bill. Quality early childhood education increases a child's chance to succeed in school and in life. The education, training, and retention of teachers are vital components. It is not babysitting. It is helping a child develop cognitively, socially, emotionally and physically. Investing in our children helps create savings later on, with decreased special education costs and the costs of incarceration.