

Bill Morgner
Damariscotta

It appears to me that this Bill is clearly designed to make the trades that much harder to get involved in in the State of Maine. It may also make it easier for large out of State companies to come into Maine and compete against Maine Companies and workers.

Where are the Licenses for the GC's building these places?