

Stephen Connolly
Freeport

My wife and I have lived on Merganser Way in Freeport for five years. The noise produced by unregulated airboats, at virtually all hours of the day, is a serious detriment to our quality of life. We strongly urge the Committee to adopt use and noise regulations that will bring back the serenity that Maine is so noted for.